

I cordially invite you to become a member of the Kentucky Community Education Association (KCEA). Enhance the learning in your community and start taking advantage of the benefits that membership has to offer.

Five reasons to Join KCEA

1. Community education professional organization
2. Continuing education opportunities
3. Opportunities to attend national and statewide conferences
4. Strong networking with other members across state and nation
5. Integral part of National Community Education Association (NCEA)

As an education professional, there are three membership levels you may choose:

Professional membership is open to all persons who are employed in areas that engage in or support the concept of community education. All individual members are entitled to all privileges of the association, voting rights and receipt of any association publications. All individual members have the right to hold elected or appointed office.

Institutional is open to any institution or group engaged in or supportive of community education is eligible for institutional membership. Up to three members from any one group may vote.

Associate membership is open to all persons who support the community education process. Associate members will receive all publications of the association and may attend conferences and training sessions. Associate members will not be eligible to hold elected offices and will not be allowed to vote in the association.

Benefits of becoming a member:

- Reduced training rates
- Quarterly newsletters
- Grant information
- Materials
- Legislative updates
- Conference notification
 - NCEA (National Community Education Association)
 - Spring/Fall Conferences